DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments, see pp. 8-9, filed 9/30/08, with respect to the applicability of Ng, Zabetian and Borwankar to newly presented claims 10-14 have been fully considered and are persuasive.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 10-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

4. With regard to claim 10, the limitation "confirming the first attorney is authentic ... based on the personal ID and password" (lines 17-18) is unclear. Claim 10 states that a personal ID and password are issued to a first party (lines 5-6), but is it unclear how the same ID and password may be used to authenticate the first attorney. It appears that Applicant may have intended for the claims to contain a separate personal ID and password for each party, and the claim has been interpreted as such for the purpose of applying prior art.

Claim 10 additionally contains similar limitations regarding confirming the second party (lines 35-36 & 49-50) and the second attorney (lines 43-44) that are rejected under the same rationale.

5. With regard to claim 14, the preamble refers to "the communication contents certification system as claims in claim 10", but claim 10 is a method claim.

6. All claims not individually rejected are rejected by virtue of their dependency from the above claims.

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claim 10, as best understood by the examiner, appears to be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

8. Claims 11-14, as best understood by the examiner, appear to be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
